FICTIONAL PATIENT MEDICAL HISTORY - DEMO DATA ONLY

The patient is a 31-year-old male.
The patient's primary condition is Major Depressive Disorder.
The patient lives in Cambridge, Massachusetts.

Medical history:
The patient was diagnosed with Major Depressive Disorder in 2021.
The patient also has generalized anxiety.
The patient has no history of psychosis or bipolar disorder.

Symptoms: the patient reports low mood, loss of interest, poor sleep, and difficulty concentrating.

Current medications: the patient takes Sertraline 100 mg once daily for depression.

Previous treatments: the patient tried Fluoxetine in 2021, which was stopped due to side effects. The patient completed a course of cognitive behavioral therapy in 2022.

The patient is looking for clinical trials for depression.
The patient prefers studies in the Boston area.