FICTIONAL PATIENT NOTE - DEMO DATA ONLY

The patient is a 54-year-old female.
The patient's primary condition is Type 2 Diabetes.
The patient lives in Boston, Massachusetts.

The patient has Type 2 Diabetes, diagnosed in 2017.
The patient also has high blood pressure (hypertension).
The patient also has high cholesterol (hyperlipidemia).

Symptoms: the patient reports fatigue, blurred vision, and numbness in both feet.

Current medications: the patient takes Metformin 1000 mg twice daily for diabetes. The patient takes Lisinopril 20 mg once daily for blood pressure. The patient takes Atorvastatin 40 mg once daily for cholesterol.

Laboratory results: HbA1c is 7.8 percent. Fasting glucose is 148 mg/dL. Blood pressure is 132/84 mmHg.

The patient is looking for clinical trials for Type 2 Diabetes.
The patient prefers studies within 50 miles with no overnight stays.